CASE NUMBER: 3:17-cr-00238

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

- 1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
- 2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
- 3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.

4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.

5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.

6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.

- 7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- 8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
- 9. Îf you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
- 10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
- 11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
- 12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
- 13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. For further information regarding these conditions, see Overview of Probation and Supervised Release Conditions, available at: www.uscourts.gov.

DEFENDANT: TAVARIE ALEXANDER WILLIAMS

CASE NUMBER: 3:17-cr-00238

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- 1. The defendant shall pay restitution to W.D in an amount totaling $86,660. Payments shall be submitted to the Clerk, United States District Court, 801 Broadway, Nashville, TN 37203. Restitution is due immediately. If the defendant is incarcerated, payment shall begin under the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. Should there be any unpaid balance when supervision commences, the defendant shall pay the remaining restitution at a minimum monthly rate of 10 percent of the defendant's gross monthly income. No interest shall accrue as long as the defendant remains in compliance with the payment schedule ordered. Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3664(k), the defendant shall notify the court and United States Attorney of any material change in economic circumstances that might affect ability to pay.
- 2. You shall participate in a program of drug testing and substance abuse treatment which may include a 30-day inpatient treatment program followed by up to 90 days in a community correction center at the direction of the United States Probation Office. You shall pay all or part of the cost for substance abuse treatment if the United States Probation Office determines you have the financial ability to do so or has appropriate insurance coverage to pay for such treatment.
- 3. You shall participate in a mental health program as directed by the United States Probation Office. You shall pay all or part of the cost of mental health treatment if the United States Probation Office determines you have the financial ability to do so or has appropriate insurance coverage to pay for such treatment.
- 4. You shall furnish all financial records, including, without limitation, earnings records and tax returns, to the United States Probation Office upon request.
- 5. You shall not contact the victim, W.D., either in person, or by telephone, mail, email, text message, or a third party; and the United States Probation Office will verify compliance.
- 6. You shall participate in sex offender assessment/treatment and polygraph examinations as recommended by the treatment provider or as directed by the probation officer. You shall contribute to the cost as determined by the probation officer.
- 7. You shall not consume any alcoholic beverages.
- 8. Your residence and employment shall be pre-approved by the U.S. Probation Office.
- 9. You shall not associate with children under the age of 18 nor frequent, volunteer, or work at places where children congregate (e.g., playgrounds, parks, malls, day-care centers or schools) unless approved by the U.S. Probation Office.
- 10. You shall have no direct or indirect contact with W.D. or the victim's immediate family, without the prior approval of the United States Probation Office, and the United States Probation Office will verify compliance with this condition.
- 11. You shall register as a sex offender as prescribed by state and federal law.
- 12. You shall not possess or use a computer or any device with access to any "on-line computer service" at any location (including place of employment) without the prior written approval of the United States Probation Office. This includes any Internet service provider, bulletin board system, or any other public or private network or e-mail system. Your residence shall not contain any electronic devices capable of Internet access without prior approval of the probation officer.
- 13. You shall consent to the U.S. Probation Office conducting unannounced examinations of your computer system(s), mobile devices, and internal/external storage devices, which may include retrieval and copying of all memory from hardware/software and/or removal of such system(s) for the purpose of conducting a more thorough inspection. You will consent to having installed on your computer(s), any hardware/software to monitor computer use or prevent access to particular materials. You will further consent to periodic inspection of any such installed hardware/software to ensure it is functioning properly. You shall pay the cost of the installation of and the continuing use of the monitoring program.
- 14. You shall provide the U.S. Probation Office with accurate information about the defendant's entire computer system (hardware/software) and internal/external storage devices; all passwords used by you; and will abide by all rules regarding computer use and restrictions as provided by the U.S. Probation Office.
- 15. You shall not buy, sell, exchange, possess, trade, or produce visual depictions of minors or adults engaged in sexually explicit conduct. You shall not correspond or communicate in person, by mail, telephone, or computer, with individuals or companies offering to buy, sell, trade, exchange, or produce visual depictions of minors or adult engaged in sexually explicit conduct, as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2256(2).
- 16. At the discretion of the Court, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3563(b)(23), you shall submit your person, and any property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computer, other electronic communication or data storage devices or media, and effects to search at any time, with or without a warrant, by any law enforcement or probation officer with reasonable suspicion concerning a violation of a condition of probation, supervised release, or unlawful conduct by the person, and by any probation officer in the lawful discharge of the officer's supervision functions.
- 17. You must not communicate, or otherwise interact, with any known members of the Gangster Disciples gang, without first obtaining permission of the probation officer.
